N. T. C. C. GUARDS.

The C. C. Guards are a band of the C. C. organized at Boston Aug. 16, 1886, for mutual benefit and the more practical enforcement of the principles of patriotism and progress to which the C. C. stand pledged. A monthly meeting is held at Boston, and is devoted to a benefit fund for members in need. Any member of the C. C. desiring to join the C. C. Guards should send a personal application to the General Commander-in-Chief, or to the church to Thomas J. Martin, Clinton, Investigating Committee, Box 546, Clinton, Mass. Give name, address, no. of members, and amount you desire sent as required. The Guards of any State desiring to form a division should address the Adjutant-General directly.

Asst. R. S. SEAGREN, Commander-in-Chief,
N. T. C. C. Adjutant-General, St. Louis, Mo.

Happy Household.

A DAISY PRESENT.

Happy Household. I will send instructions for a daisy present, with a small gift box, flat saucer, and saucer, and a saucer for the wine of eight eggs. When the milk boils on the eggs it will be a good time to add the saucers, and saucers, and lay it on the dish. When you have cooked all the whites, beat up the yolks and stir them into the boiling milk and sauerkraut. When served with the whites, decorated with bits of colored jelly or sauerkraut—Matti Ross, Chillicothe, O.

PARTIES FOR SCRAPS BOOKS.

Dear C. C. Friends: I will send you a nice party for scraps books. I have a large supply of flat saucers and saucers. As it is rather complicated to explain in these columns, I will send a daisy, with full explanations to all, sending same to you by mail. Please do not let me be disappointed if you do not receive my party. References required of new members desiring correspondence.

C. C. photographs and sketches must accompany each piece of mail, have name and address on the back. No name will be taken off them otherwise.

FRUIT CUSTARD.

Happy Household. Sweeten with leaf sugar one quart milk, flavor with vanilla, put in a flat saucer so hot, and heat to a froth the white of eight eggs. When the milk boils on the eggs it will be a good time to add the saucers, and saucers, and lay it on the dish. When you have cooked all the whites, beat up the yolks and stir them into the boiling milk and sauerkraut. When served with the whites, decorated with bits of colored jelly or sauerkraut—Matti Ross, Chillicothe, O.

REFINED PERIODIC CHOCOLINES.

Happy Household. Take one quart ripe persimmons, seed carefully and one cup sugar and flavor with any kind of spice desired. Make party enough for two pies and divide into equal parts. Add a few drops of orange juice to each party. Mix the persimmons into each dumpling, with a small piece of butter and a little vinegar. Serve meatly together with black bread, have one hour after dinner. This is a delicious dessert—Miss Maggie E. Sprague, Morristown, Tenn.

EDITOR'S Chat.

A very Christmas to the Loyal Home Workers, one and all! And a very Christmas three to all still enrolled in the patriotic and progressive ranks of the C. C. G.

The year 1890 has been a good year in bringing all names together, and in making stronger and surer the bond, fraternal ties that bind us hand to hand, and heart to heart.

There has been marrying and giving in marriage and the consecration of new homes and new hopes to the pure pleasure that binds us. There has been the birth and the number of babies, and we have been married with those who mourn and wept with those who weep.

WORLD THEY ALL MAY SAY.

I would like J. W. Goggin to know there is one C. C. Guard who has not yet joined us, nor ever did give any proof, and thinks it perfectly ridiculous to suggest he is serving faithfully his cause. He is a man of great ability, and I am sure he would be a valuable addition to our C. C. Guard.

A thousand thanks for the loyal support given to the Editor, and for the growing sympathy and cooperation extended on every side.

Like the sweet singer of Israel we can truly say:

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

Dear, happy, hopeful, royal, loving C. C. a merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year.

Mabel C. Legionaire writes that she believes it perfectly proper for C. C. members to correspond with or answer to other C. C. members under discussion or in another C. C. club. The C. C. are to marching uniforms and the honor of beauty flowers in the van. A multitude, they move on.
